NOTICE TO COUNTY RECORDER REGARDING ECCLESIASTICAL TRUST LODGMENT

This is a formal Notice of Ecclesiastical Lodgment under the Ecclesiastical Sovereign Private Trust of Humanity, governed solely by Divine Law, Ecclesiastical Equity, and Natural Law.

This trust is not statutory, not commercial, and is not subject to UCC, maritime, or corporate jurisdiction.

Please Read Carefully:

- This is not a statutory "filing."
This is not being submitted into a court case or commercial system. This is a lawful lodgment of public notice by a living man under divine jurisdiction.
- No approval or interpretation is required.
Your office is not being asked to judge, interpret, or process this document—only to date-stamp it for recordkeeping purposes and return the original.
- No fee is due.
This is not a commercial transaction. It is a lawful, non-statutory ecclesiastical notice. There is no legal basis for a charge.
- Boonville failed in honor.
Booneville's refusal to recognize the lawful distinction between statutory filing and ecclesiastical lodgment has been noted as dishonor. Sebastian County is now offered the opportunity to correct this with equity and integrity.
- This is public record.
Refusal to accept this document constitutes denial of access, suppression of notice, and trespass upon ecclesiastical jurisdiction. This act will be entered into the international trust ledger as dishonor.

The county recorder is not being asked to assume responsibility for the content. You are only requested to act in a ministerial capacity to confirm receipt and complete the lawful record.

Respectfully Lodged by:

✠ Jonathan Daniel Clements

Living Trustee, Ecclesiastical Sovereign Private Trust of Humanity
